

DISCRIMINATION IS AGAINST THE LAW

The Children's Doctors, P.C. complies with applicable Federal civil right law and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Children's Doctors, P.C. does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

The Children's Doctors, P.C. provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- qualified sign language interpreters
- written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
  - qualified interpreters
  - information written in other languages

If you need these services, please notify the receptionist so they may obtain the necessary information to give to the Practice Civil Rights Coordinator.

If you believe that The Children's Doctors, P.C. has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
